1. Welcome to Element Esports

Element Esports is a grassroots, player-first organization for competitors, creators, staff, and community beyond the FPS arena. Founded in April 2023 by Joshua 'JoshDisciple' Ashbaugh, Element operates as the non-FPS sister organization of ADHD Esports.

This packet introduces the organization, current leadership, public channels, relationships, and member resources. It supplements - and does not replace - the current policy library and any signed role-specific agreement.

2. What members can expect

- Clear role expectations and an identified point of contact
- Access to relevant organization knowledge, templates, and experience
- Opportunities to develop competitive, creative, community, or operational skills
- A safety-first, anti-harassment, and fair-play standard
- Honest communication about volunteer status and available opportunities

3. Leadership contacts

7. Before accepting a role

- Review the document library and policies that apply to your work
- Confirm the formal position, Discord display role, reporting line, and expected time commitment
- Complete the correct agreement through the authorized process
- Ask about accessibility adjustments or safeguarding requirements before activity begins
- Never assume that a Discord label grants internal access or authority
